

OWENS & MINOR VENDOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Owens & Minor is committed to collaborating with ethical companies who share our strong belief in business ethics, integrity, and social compliance, around the globe. Our success depends on our partners and we are providing this Vendor Code of Conduct to help you understand what is important to us.

This Vendor Code of Conduct sets forth the basic requirements for all Vendors, distributors, agents, suppliers, representatives, and other business partners and their employees, directors, officers, agents, representatives, and subcontractors (collectively referred to as “Vendors”). This is our standard and it must be followed to by all Vendors.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW AND BASIC ETHICS

Vendors are expected to comply with all applicable local, state, federal, and national laws and regulations of the jurisdiction in which you are doing business. In addition to the law, we also expect Vendors to demonstrate business integrity by adhering to the following:

- Anti-Bribery Laws: Anti-bribery laws are found globally, but nowhere is it more profound than in the U.S. and the UK. As an organization that conducts business in both of these countries, we need to know that our partners are going to abide by the rules in those locations, as well as where they live and work. This law is number one on this list for a reason!
- Privacy Laws and Regulations: All Vendors must comply with country specific laws and regulations related to privacy. Data privacy is no longer just a local or country specific concern. Regulations in Asia/Pacific, EMEA, and the Americas now make it a global concern. For information on Data privacy at Owens & Minor, and to help you understand its importance, you can reach out to GM-Privacy@owens-minor.com.
- Healthcare Law: Owens & Minor is committed to compliance with U.S. and international healthcare laws and regulations that govern our interactions with healthcare professionals (“HCPs”). We expect our Vendors to understand and abide by the same rules. Compliance with these laws and regulations ensures our commitment to patients, HCPs, institutions and the governments where we do business. Violations of healthcare laws and regulations could subject our company and you, our Vendor, to added scrutiny. Our overarching goal is to protect the healthcare system, Owens & Minor, and you - our business partners, by ensuring that we do not improperly influence an HCP’s purchasing, prescribing, or treatment decisions.
- Import/Export Compliance: Vendors must comply with all applicable trade laws in every jurisdiction regarding import/export matters.

- Security: Vendors must maintain adequate security at all facilities and implement supply chain security procedures, including reporting suspicious activity, counterfeit products, data security issues, or any security issue. We're only as safe as the weakest link, and you are critical to our collective safety.
- Conflict Minerals: Owens & Minor expects its Vendors to undertake reasonable due diligence within their supply chains to determine the origin of the conflict minerals contained in materials and products they supply to us. Annually, when we request additional information from some of our Vendors, it is our expectation that all Vendors will provide the necessary information.
- Antitrust: Vendors must conduct business in full compliance with antitrust and fair competition laws that govern the jurisdictions in which they conduct business.
- Industry Standards: Should the legal requirements and practices of our industry change, we expect our Vendors, at a minimum, to comply with the current legal requirements of the jurisdiction in which they are operating. You can expect Owens & Minor to adapt to industry changes as they evolve, as well.
- Transparency: As a partner, we expect you will let us know when something unexpected or unfortunate occurs so that we can build a plan to address it and move forward. It's important for us to continue to partner with you and that means knowing when you've stumbled. Trust and transparency are critical for all successful business relationships.

SOCIAL COMPLIANCE EXPECTATIONS FROM OUR VENDORS

- Prohibit Discrimination and Harassment: We expect all Vendors to build and adhere to a program prohibiting discrimination and harassment in all aspects of employment, including but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, placement, training, compensation, treatment, and advancement.
- Provide a Safe and Healthy Workplace: Owens & Minor expects all Vendors to provide a secure, safe, and healthy workplace. We believe complying with all applicable occupational safety and health laws, rules, and regulations is critical to maintaining a productive workplace, mitigating the risk of accidents, and minimizing injuries and other health risks. We expect the same commitment to worker safety from those we partner with.
- Disaster Preparedness: Vendors must be prepared for emergencies. This includes providing appropriate first aid supplies, employee notification and evacuation procedures, emergency training and drills, appropriate fire detection and suppression equipment and adequate exit facilities.

- Proper Procurement Practices: As a company dedicated to doing business ethically, Owens & Minor is committed to collaborating with like-minded, ethical organizations. We expect all Vendors to share our values and maintain compliance programs that support ethical procurement practices globally.
- Protection Against Child Labor: Owens & Minor does not engage in or tolerate child labor or the exploitation of children. We make every effort to ensure not only that Owens & Minor is abiding by all applicable workplace laws, but also that we are not doing business with anyone that recruits or exploits children.
- Prohibit Forced Labor and Abuse of Labor: Owens & Minor prohibits the physical or mental abuse of teammates and prohibits the use of all forms of forced labor, including forced prison labor, indentured labor, bonded labor, or slave labor. Owens & Minor is committed to doing its part to end these abuses and the human trafficking associated with them. We expect the same from our Vendors.
- We Protect the Environment: Owens & Minor expects our Vendors to comply with all applicable environmental laws, rules, and regulations. Vendors should strive to eliminate waste, improve processes to reduce carbon emissions, reduce their carbon footprint, recycle, and utilize renewable energy if possible. We believe that operating with the environment in mind is not just the right thing to do ecologically, it is also good business.
